

This proposal is for those that will not discipline themselves to pass a Morse Code Test. CW is more important than even, not only for Ham Radio itself, but for our national and local public services. I will back the Fist Club proposal (no number assigned yet).